Introduction

- [1] On 8 May 2016, Solar City New Zealand Ltd (Solar) made a formal complaint to the Electricity Authority (EA) alleging that the new tariff adopted by Unison breached clauses 2 and 2(a) of Schedule 6.4 of the Electricity Industry Participation Code 2010 (Code).
- [2] On 16 January 2017, the Rulings Panel issued a decision noting that it had jurisdiction to determine a dispute. Unison Networks Limited appealed the decision.
- [3] On 19 June 2017, the High Court issued its decision finding that the Rulings Panel did not have jurisdiction to consider the dispute¹.
- [4] The matter before the Rulings Panel has not been formally closed.

Notice

- [5] The Rulings Panel gives notice that it will close the matter on the basis that it has no jurisdiction.
- [6] If any party to the dispute considers that the matter should not be closed, they file a submission within 5 working days of this Notice being issued stating the reasons why it should not be closed. If a submission is received, the Panel will consider them and made a decision.
- [7] Submissions to the Panel are to served at: Registrar@electricityrulingpanel.nz
